Homecoming

The Cornell Art Center is a learning and teaching center for visual arts; it contains the classrooms where students learn history, theory, and studio techniques. The Center also contains an accredited museum where students and community members can come to view the college collection as well as traveling exhibits of Florida artists and American arts. This resource was made possible through the generous support of George and Harriet Cornell and the continued help of many friends of the College.

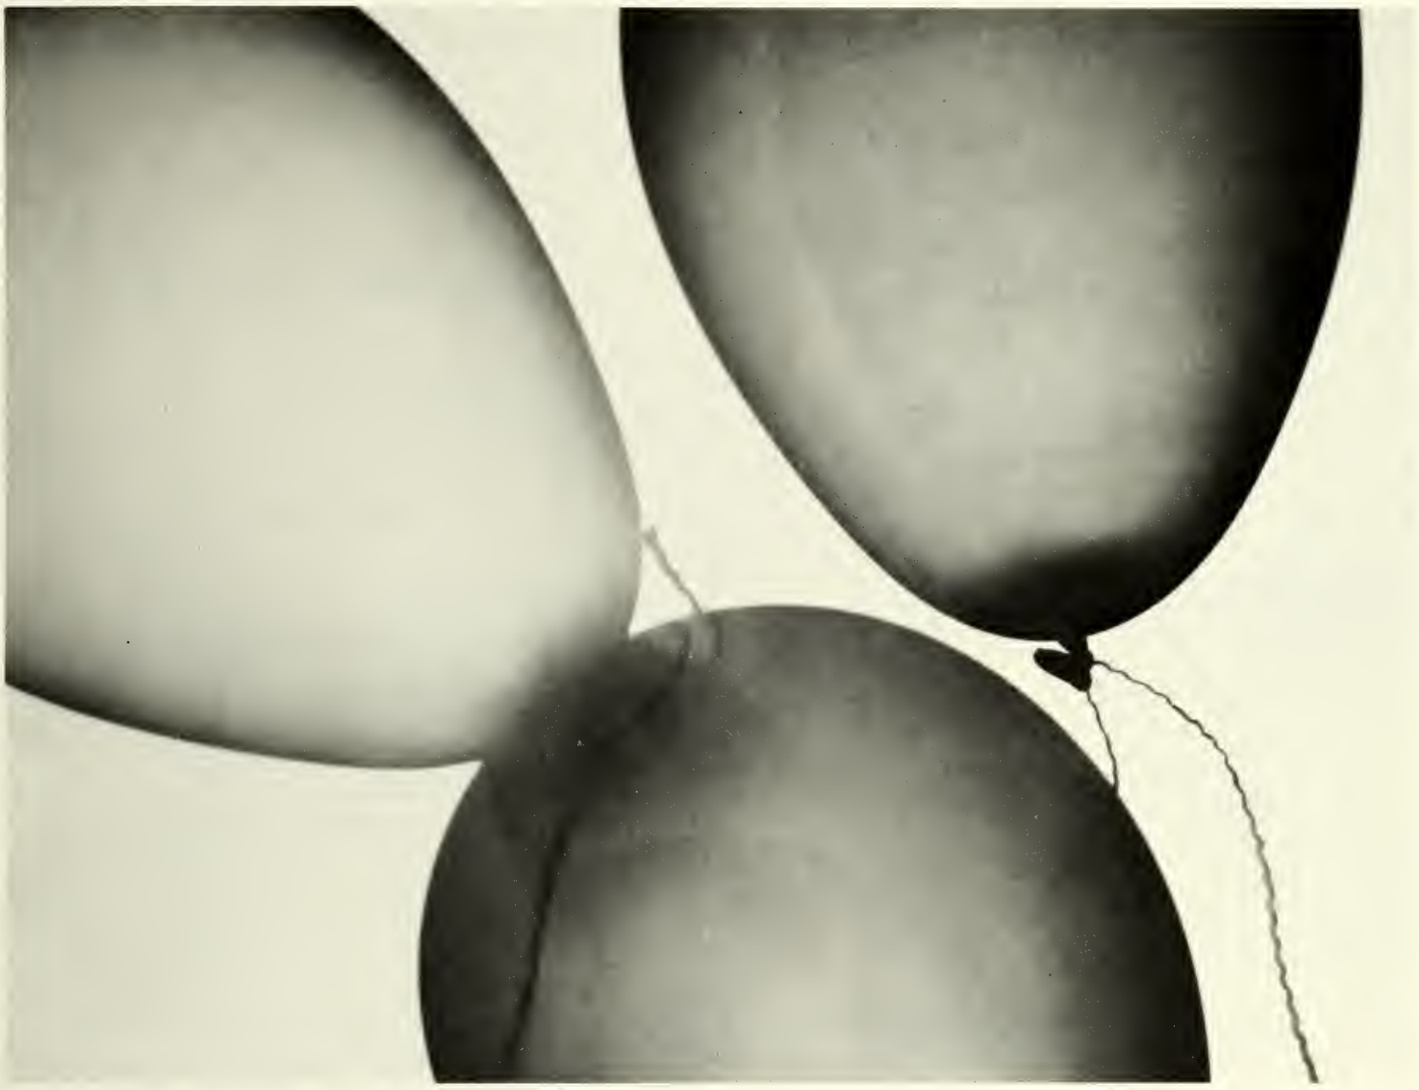
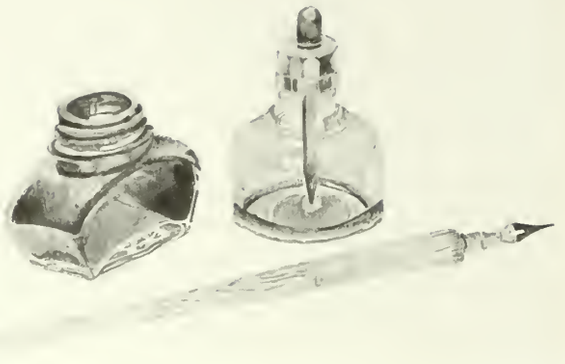
Brushing



David Reed

Brushing is the Rollins College literary magazine. It is a collection of poetry, prose, short stories, artwork and creative photography. This year marks the tenth anniversary for Brushing. We would like to salute and congratulate this publication by offering a sample from the past ten years.

Foreword



Abby Ober

Library: an arena, bigger than campus, made out of Books: walls made out of books, floors made of books.
You may: tear down a wall to find a book. Build a hut out of: Fielding, Stryon, Keats. Make your bed out of Plato's Republic. Windows out of Auden, Whitman, Ginsberg. Stove out of Faulkner, card catalogue, the fuel.
Live in the Library! Vacation in escapist literature!
paper back brochures fall from the sky momentarily.
Do away with Dewey! make Winter Park Florida a Library!
As Auden once wrote, "It's entirely possible."
As Hemingway once wrote, "Why not?"
As Ken Kesey once wrote, "Let's do it."
As Fitzgerald once wrote, "Yes."

And I agree with them all. Except, don't make your dormat out of this issue. Make a doorknob instead.

Pat Garner
December 1980

someday,
when we find ourselves
by the sea,
would you come sit in the sand with me
and show me the shells of life you've found that the sand and waves had hidden away when i went looking.
and, if you trust me,
let me hold your soul
up to my ear,
so that i may hear
the secrets of the ocean
deep inside of you . . .

Kathleen Walsh
Fall 1975

Across Campus

They all smile here —
Stranger to stranger,
Friend to friend.
All feel the need to express a studied sense of belonging.

On a smooth, nut-studded cement plate
We pass at ten.
You smile — I say hello.
It seldom varies.
But some mornings I lower my eyes
When you approach.
Some mornings your false friendliness is just added pain
To a day I do not want.
Then you pass by,
A jigsaw puzzle in your eyes
And I refuse to supply the missing piece.
I'm sorry (or I want to be).
You're so smooth,
So polished,
You belong so well.
Lower your eyes,
Pass,
Become a stranger.
You know you never see anyway.
And I'll bleed on my shoes,
And vomit out the morning.
I have taken off my glitter.
I'm going naked today.

Message

Bring me lake lilies rain swept and water lapped tie them to dinghy bows
and send them down stream
to me
  I will be waiting at the landing heart hung like snowed
pine limbs bending in weather wanting your gifts.
  Buy me
buckets of blue well water to wet willow roots
with
  I will render you roof rain.

In All Fairness

As the showers shyly gently carefully
bathe the world,

Those magnanimous trees offer refuge for those who prefer dryness.

Yet,
when the showers
cease
due to the persistence
of the wind and the sun,

Those ever generous trees
offer another soft shower in all fairness to those who prefer rainfall,

As they release
the rain so carefully caught in their young leaves.

CARO

Thaddeus Seymour

President

"I feel a special kinship with my classmates in the Class of 1982, because we entered Rollins together four years ago. It has been exciting to share in the developments at the College, and to sense that something quite special has occurred.

I believe that Rollins is now on a trajectory, straight and true. The days of disparaging newspaper articles and jibes about fun in the sun and underwater basket-weaving are over. In the next years I am confident that the strength and quality of our College will receive wider and wider recognition.

I have never had more fun in my life, and I particularly value my friendship with the Class of 1982. I look forward to a long and enjoyable relationship in the years ahead."

Jesse B. Morgan Vice-President and Treasurer

Robert D. Marcus
Vice-President for Academic Affairs and Provost

Robert F. Duvall
Vice-President for Development and College Relations

"We are teachers. We wish to help others learn. This year we will offer nearly 800 courses ranging from The Art of the Northern Renaissance to The Human Skeleton.

"We are scholars/researchers/performers, with interests ranging from the problems of fusion, the chemistry of transuranium elements, Chaucerian semantics, and aggression in children, to the difficulties of researching paranormal phenomena and of composing an opera.

"We do know that beneath the superficial hustle-bustle, education works most forcefully in the interaction of persons, of faculty, and students. Our College affirms and exalts the role and power of persons, of unique characters, in learning".

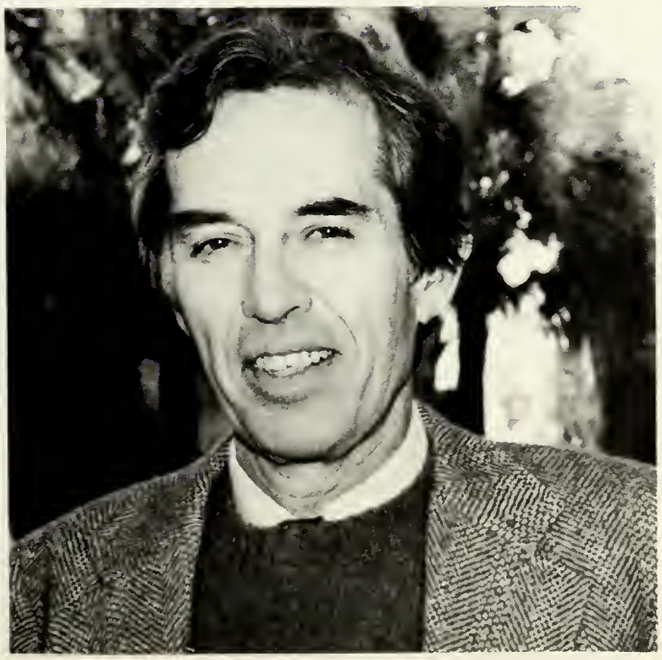
Daniel R. DeNicola
Dean of the Faculty

"Rollins has a special vision of the learner. It has a long tradition of seeing the ideal student as one who seeks what ought to be, and who takes personal and community responsibility for the search.

"In each aspect of life at Rollins, the student finds situations that enable a liberated mind, that provide the opportunity for leadership, and that maintain human scale.

"Situations outside the classroom are as important for developing a Rollins learner as are the exams and the papers. For Rollins sees the student as a member of the community of learning responsible for the continued growth of this and the larger community."

Roland J.B. Goddu
Acting Dean of the College



"While we ought not to underestimate the achievements of Rollins' recent years, neither ought we slip into complacency. I believe we will be turning another corner at Rollins in the next few years, and I'll give that corner a name: innovation.

"After strong achievements in academic seriousness, we will be ready for the next steps toward new and decisive educational ventures. A college of the highest quality does not model itself after some elite; rather, it is bold enough to set its own standards and devise its own systems.

"Academic vigor and educational innovation together may not spell 'relief' but they will provide excitement."

ALPHA PHI

The Alpha Phis hove hod some excitement this year. The "Swamp" really earned its name. Dono, Robin, Mory Sue, ond Susan — remember the night the paint spilled an the carpet? Especiolly Dono, how did thot point spill? And wha set off that fire alarm anyway? Well, Dana wos elected to scrub the point ond hose it off. Did your mother hove ony children thot lived, Dana? Susan, Rabin, and Sue spent their time wading in the water. Brooms can be very useful at times. Sue got a blister. Came-an Sue — Toughen up! And Suson, AKA "Bucka 1" — Where wos "Bucko 2"? Robin just wanted to leave and ga ta FSU. But what's there ta da in Tollohossee? Hove o clue! Anywoy it was not a pretty picture.

And while all this wos going an, where were Karen, Coro, Mary, Jeni, and Liso? Karen wos busy hoving an identity crisis. She was over ot the TKE house trying to find out if she wos DVLS or KLC. Jeni stayed long enaugh ta watch the others wark, and then she went to sleep to dream af raad trips, swimming fully clathed and handcuffed with o pillow cose over her heod, as well os opple flovored shoving cream. But none of those things are reol ore they, Jeni? Maybe you should osk the pledges. Coro's room wos olmost flooded, but she didn't mind because she was stoying at the RITz. Mory hodn't moved inta her raam yet, but she did help in the cleoning effort. She gat tired of helping, though, when somebody asked her: "Is thot your face or did your neck thraw up?" Lisa was in New York working on odvertising. Advertising what, Lisa? and as far Julie, our illustrious P.T. (What's that you guys?) oll we con say is see what you missed when you maved back home? The Swamp is definitely the place to be — os well it shauld be!

Inspiration week was o stary in itself. I think all the new initiotes survived. The questian is did the octives survive? Lynne and Melonie hod to wosh Marlene's cor, but then Marlene poid her price taa. Marlene, are you reolly supposed ta wear your clothes when you toke a shower? Annie-Poo and Bish — since when do actives porticipote in pledge pranks? Oh, that's right you were just helping a gaad couse. Kim Hill, Melonie, Lynne, Grey and Polly had a hord time trying ta kidnop the president. (Wha's Pally?) Well, girls, wos it warth it to you ond your cohorts? She must have looked pretty funny in the pool. Thonks gaes ta big brother Barry far aiding the cause af the soon to be new initiotes. Barry, didn't yau tell yaur portner that security can't apen people's roams far ather people? Especially nat for lowly pledges! Terzah, Judy, ond Jenny Lawe — were you in on all that, too? Terzah was prabobly still selling M & M's! Christy ond Kim D. missed the excitement. Kim's our newest member ond Christy wos in Londan. Whot did yau da in Landon? While all this was going on Louise was entertaining her big sis's boyfriend, Val was trying ta find someone ta cleon her room, and Jenni Feltel was flashing the frots. Jenni, did you really hove on a bothing suit? And Lindo, how did Tony feel about being entertained by Louise? Better yet, how did you feel obout that? Moybe Helen will shore Crowford, ofter all, isn't it share and share alike in the Executive Suite?

As for the rest af the Phis, while Cathy got engaged, Vicki maved claser ta campus, but still never gets carrectly informed abaut campus events. We'll keep trying Vicki! Kim McD had been running cross cauntry while Jenny W. had been running cross compus. What frot is that, Jenny? Kim's big sis, Elaine, keeps up the traditian af running, but she daesn't hove the time ta run on the team. Thase guys on the first floor Holt keeping you busy Eloine? And speaking of guys, we must mention a few of our Bordeaux Beoux. To Will, we just soy "Ha, ha, ho!" Tony's too busy fielding baseballs to come by the house while Kurt's just taa busy. We haven't seen Jomes in o long time — We're getting together a seorch party pretty soon. The search may try to locate Willis os well — it seems he may be missing. Far Paul we hove one question. "Are yau always in a gaad mood?" Lost-but-nat-leost Tomie hibernoted all winter term, but we think she's still in the sorority. Tomie, is honors worth all this? After all, you should never wark too hord. And Maria — da yau still love Mustangs? And where's Jennifer Sharp? She'll be back, is she taa pretoh for Duke, or what? We will olsa be welcaming Debbie Mathews back next fall as she hos spent this yeor in Spain. Hablos espanol, Debbie? I certainly hope sa! Well, that about wrops up the news from the Alpha Phis ond the seniors wauld like to soy "Goodbye and Goad Luck to everyone".

On behalf of our entire sorority we would like to congratulate aur seniors far their outstanding performance in The Graduate. At the same time, we are confident that The Turning Point for our pledges will prove successful far cantinuing the tradition af Chi O From Here to Eternity.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

The girls of the Gamma Gamma chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta would like to welcome you to a tour of the house! First wave to Mary M. alias Dot who is bouncing up Holt Ave. She doesn't have time to stop because she is late for her date with Sony' Walkman. As we enter, the livingroom is on the left. In it we see Linda, Gwen, and Kare listening to Kare's old album "Shady and the Puerto Rican". Over there, in the corner we see Kene, Cindi, and Patty planning their next meeting of the KA little sisters. That out there is the famous Theta patio with out Sun Goddesses Allison, Annie A., Kay, Kathy S., and Dawn in her designer bathing suit studying?!! We're living proof that you can absorb the material inside the books by using them as headrests. Now on to the living quarters. This first room is our dear Pres. Amanda. We can't help wondering if she's marrying Dan or Theta in May. Next is our cute little sparkling clean kitchen and inside is Beth B, making her diet supper of Tofu, beans, fruit salad and 1 qt. of ice cream. Wait, that isn't a room its Pauline's closet, Whoops! Oh that's Pam P. swining her way through a gallon of Oreo ice cream. What do you mean it's Beth's! This is Mary T.'s new single. She and Robin J. are eating diet salads, while waiting for Cassie to finsih making their fudge. Across the hall is Dutter's room. Ever since Sally left all she had been doing is getting Stonered. On the second floor we find Mary A. in her pink and green bathing suit. Its OK Mary you can use your slip. Watch out here comes our most beautiful Theta Carol. Flash those baby blues! Next is Kim, lately she's been spending quite a bit of time slurping Marty-inis, yumm! Don't bother CUB when she's not studying or playing with Tom, she is teaching Julie W. the finer art of Cycling. Jules when do you get the training wheels off! Be careful of that room it's Sherrie's den of iniquity. What in the H —- made you and Billy paint it that color? As we pass Stacy's room we can see her in front of the mirror all dressed up with no place to go. How's your finger doing Stace? That's Lauren's room; don't mind those funny noises; its only Lauren and Mitch lifting weights? on the third floor we see Vicki's unoccupied room. There are quite a few notches' above the doorway but we can't figure out whether they are for all the hours she studies or all the boys she dates. That's strange, the only person in Pam's room is some old man sitting in a rocking chair. Those squels you hear is only Tammy celebrating. She got a date and a new iron today. Alright back downstairs. Just step over Annie S . . . She sips a lot of wine but she never defies Murph's law, sorry you only got to meet Robin's new room-mate. Well, we're back to the first floor. Don't mind Laurie B., Jan N., and Madge; they are our local astronauts off on their own planet, as usual. If you take a quick look out the front door, you can see Poppy toddling by on her porto-bike and there goes Chris B. in her BMW. Did your Dad give it to you, Chris? Now let's go out the back way to the Pub where we can find Kelly, Chris A. and Polly looking for men. Polly can you Doug it? Well how did you like us? They are a bunch of terrific actives? Too bad you didn't get to meet our Aussie girls Ann L. and Alicia, but they'll be back soon. Oh yea, you haven't seen all of us on the next trip you'll have to meet the ultimate of Theta, our Pledges! See ya next year! Love from the three of us!

Kappa Kappa Gamma

As usual, Kappas came out on top and had another successful year. We managed to survive a new rush, party permits, Vanessa's balloon derby, Tini's notes, pledge pranks, two Santas, Park Ave's and our 50th year anniversary.

Madame President Tini, were you able to practice your authoritarian role with Bob or does he roller skate on his own free will? Kappa decorator, Leslie Anderson, why don't you take a leave of absence from work and come play with us? Nancy it seems you had a JOLLY time all year between happy hours. Deli Dame Sue's been busy RIDING the storm out for four years, WEO! Maite will Vero Beach Jeff make it to the final pref? Harpy, in your Alpha Phi pad I hear many good times have been had. Will it last forever and Chris will become a Dad or is it just a Fad? Mary Lochner out of the kitchen and into our house, but we wish it could be said that she's quiet as a mouse! Joanne our super scoper, all she wants is a guy to rope her. Madge our Jazzercise Queen with those limber muscles you sure do make a scene. Pam and Lauren you've gone one step too far. And then there's Phyllis in her scholcrship room not only studying as many assume. Elissa, how come you only come out of your room to hear "Whip It"!? Our Bahama Mamas Debbie S. and Alexis have not been on the KKG scene because their steady men are so keen. Allison, O.K. your thesis is done are you waiting for MR. TOOTSIE ROLL to come? Chelle, how does it feel to graduate after four years of absolute "Wiglessness"?

Lady Di, since when did Kappa's start having Big Brothers? P.S. Al, the front door light is fixed! Debbie Foster thinks Toffee is really sweet, other snacks she will not eat! Pygmy Harding, doggone if we're all flying to South Africa for your candlelight. P.S. Hou 'bout them doors? Hendy, does Pete deliver Godfather's Pizza from your room? Debbie Hewitt, we're glad to note during the fall of '81 Miss Priss transformed into the Rollins Date Queen and was ready for fun. C.J., why have you been SWINDLED out of fun with your KKG sister's? Anne Kelley, does Kurt Kleinschmidt do all of your academic training? Chris, our Cuban bombshell, we never see you, does Jimmy have you in a KERNER? Debbie Morcott, we're sure we'll see you skiing soon since you're hanging around that kid named COON. Sue Padian, did your homeland make a permanent MARK on you? Karen, R.A. duties seem to have you wrapped up, will it take a Head Res. to get you unwrapped? Vanessa, did you experience much PAYNE when you broke up with Billy? Cindy S., while we all slept 4 different men she has kept! It looks like Gail's had LUTZ of luck with her man Ed.

Allison L. — Hey Orlando! This is "Ted the Sledge" who knows you've got eyes for him! Ashley, you never say much, but we all know you've got BUFFUM in your clutch. Kim, we know it's not your Grandpa that you weekend with in Tampa! Club Mama Connie, how does it feel to be the first woman in history to belong to both a fraternity and a sorority at the same time. Jo Day, you certainly have become quite an ART-lover this year. Debbie Foote, our California bound sister, what's your sign? And don't forget your skates! Margaret and Tammy to London you did go, but what you did we'll never know! Leslie Ginway — "hey you guys, has anybody seen my orange nail polish? It's really tacky . . . and I can't find my topcoat either." Susie Murphy, our cocktail queen, how are you able to manage G & T's and a 12.0? Hey Frieda, WE FORFEIT! George — "Oh Wow!" Our new found actress, who have you found to play your stage? Mary Beth Williams, where for art thou? Get out of' your room and into the world! Julie now that you're a woman do you only play with the PRO'S? HI JEAN! Are you sure all that sweat is from running?

To Lisa P. and Allison D. who have gone their spearate ways, they will always remember their old Kappa days. To Dede, our grad. counselor who breezed through Crummer, we'll all miss you, but wait until Mardi Gras! And to our little Kappa pledges, yes we like "Wake Up" kegs at Phi Delt but NOT Vaseline on our doors! Goodbye and good luck seniors! Always remember: GIVE US WHISKEY, GIN OR RYE, WE'LL BE KAPPAS TILL WE DIE!

Non Compis Mentis

The mansion on the sunny southern shores of Lake Virginia stands even taller with N.C.M. under its roof. No matter where you find us, NCM will always fly high. Because we're not of sound mind, Mom had difficulty keeping us in line. Even she was seen on the LEDGER of the sauna while busy KAHNing his roomate. That's OK, for you in the first class . . . or else there's always Jimmy D., if Ian won't come through. As for our seniors, Nancy was seen heading to NJ with Ted, but returned from Australia with a rose on her hip: and a seeing eye dog at her side. Lynn, our most athletic member, had taken up golf, and had been seen chasing Ted around with a putter for playing on someone elses green, but since CHRISmas, she's been playing at another CLUB herself. Claire — what do you get when you cross a bear with a Duck? Not a yippy skippy. We don't see "I" high anymore, she must have switched to MARTINI's instead. Rita was MARKed in the bushes in Dallas, you always look ready to us, so please dew drop inn. Although Patty was seen moving on Centipede, she never did get her piece of the ROCK, so she quickly METZ someone else instead. Terry D. — all you do is work and study, is that how you keep your MARKS? After tricks at the PHI DELT house, Lisa T. and Ted scored high on their biology practical. When the CHIPs are down, Maryanne always manages to find another, but only ends up rePETWing herself. Tricia, take stern WARRENing — don't get caught sitting on the JOHN. And finally to Jodi and Robin, the two zookeepers, keep around Horace, a cage around Phineas and Osiris, and leashes around Bill and Matt. And trying to be different, Robin bought a BMW but too bad she couldn't use it to come to pledge Saturday. Wendal — who not only took quiltmaking winter term, but also WEAVEing, we gues she's finally given up on BMW's it only took her two years, but how long will it take to give up porsches? Lisa V — Walk much? in to dressers much? bloody noses much? Lose it much? WISE up will ya? Priscilla, once again feeling no PAYNE or was it maybe too much? . . . and don't try to tell us your scratches are from walking into doors. Laura got back in line and made a SPEEDy reCOOPERation. Then ther's Dawn, who got caught twice, once for tooting, and now for HANdLon her new tennis career. Even your brother is wild — Light Karen? Shauna reached new social heights when she went to the Merchant Marine ball, interested in sailors now? Kyle was found behing closed doors making Mr. MOJOE rise managing to find a LUP-hole when she should have been in tom's COTT. After an old RED headed tennis player, Melissa O'Grady has her sight set another. After returning from her Danny boy of Ireland, Terry finds it just as good to sit and listen to Lennon. Karin D. — you want it? she's got it in her room — even a JOHN. After a token affairCaroline came out with a few bruises on her neck. And finally to our only faithful hoover, Tracy. What are you, nut's?

NCM would like to welcome all the new hoovers, and we hope that they'll carry on the NCM tradition to their fullest potential. Long live the spirit of Mini Midk and the Stubby Stones!

We would like to wish good luck and say goodbye to our Hell Seniors: Irene, Patty, Rita, Nancy, Claire, Lisa, Tricia, Jodi, Lynn, Maryanne, and Terry.

Special thanks: Housing Review Board, Park Ave Pub, TM's, the maids, eggs, the Stones, the chicken theory, Pableo, Mash Apt #6, gobs of fun, as always Otis, and especially PKS.

Special no-thanks: Bluecasket, WPPD, Security, first floor toilet, smoke alarms, the space shuttle, E.ra. and the resident rat.

GO FOR IT!

It's been quite the year our old-timer seniors are leaving here. They hung in for a long spell — thanx for the empty rooms and raise some hell! Suite CINDY and CARE, it was great having you there, but the fits started again and Cocktail's chasing Indiana men. RAINA you're back!! It's time to get black! So sweep down the coast for weekends of the most. The phone is ringing, but PETRA's room is swinging "It's for you," the punker, who could it be to get you drunker? Where are you, MARY MARGARET? Rough Winter Term, but you're right on target! Feet up on the table, LIBBY, Libby has the label. Racing sisters to her own chair, once graduated would you leave it there? Little Miss MAAL, you're rarely in our hall. Please visit more often, at least before the coffin! Trainer SMITHLET, train 'em well! We've got great pledges, just keep giving them hell?! Yogurt and cigarettes, just for WEISS. Working on Tony, please visit just twice. LISA BALZ, our European commuter, too bad Florence is too far to suit her. Thanks for finally moving in, SUZI, your purple will forever win. Courtyard or living room, that's where DAWN resides, but otherwise it seems like she always just hides. Last but not least is our Gonzo, who shines like the midnight-lit candle when she made us all whine!

These juniors survived, yep, they're still alive. Only one more year and they're flying outa here. But until then they's chasing men. Except for KAREN, who'll be ready 'n raring With Eddie, she'll stay, yet will keep an eye on Jay. Another true to her classes, RHINA JAAR doesn't need glasses, to see her sisters drool (in business they're the fools). Rhina tries hard to make her home, on campus so she won't have to roam. ROBIN knows of roaming, unlike pigeons who are homing She wheels across the lawn, we hope to see her before dawn! NANCY, right next door, "Hey Popcorn!" make some more. Studying French every night, only Paris could make it right JANI's stuck in the kingdom of magic, but to leave it may be tragic. All these ups and downs, is there room for marriage grounds? Our president, TAMMY, all the way from ALABAMY, has survived quite will without Lake Virginia smell. But never fear, for Lisa still lives near. DIANE, our long-haired V.P., true to her man she'll always be. Also loyal to Ma Bell after eleven she does very well. And at last ther'e AMY, quiet as can be!! Home across the sea, I brought a fleagle with me. Too bad he's up in D.C., so there's no one here to play with me.

Our sophomore gang has calmed from a year where they set pledge bombs. FABIENNE In her room, at the phoneside we make her loom. Earth, Wind. and Fire does blast whenever we walk past, and often a Haitian tune. Little THERESA B., who only comes up to your knee. She battles for rugs and yells at the thugs, while they row as if on the sea SUZANNE, Suzanne, who's your latest man? We hardly every know, cuz you never seem to show. Partying SARAH won't stop, each weekend to frats she'll hop. Late night HBO, with Mr. Bill in tow, aren't you glad we have couches to flop? ROBIN stayed home with old Dan, a very nice West Point man But once she was falling, cuz he wasn't calling, we hope that they've found a new plan.

Our PLEDGES we'd never forget, 19 of the greatest, you bet! From the punk party plastic to the yellow kitchen, they're spastic, but they haven't seen anything yet!! Just a few last notes, like the time we needed boats. Floating trunks did appear, too bad Physical Plant wasn't near. And we'ss send more thanks for keeping ice in our tanks — not the way we'd like to start the year.

And to you out ther, old Honey Rush turned out to be quite funny. With seven and forty, we make a great sorority! Thanx for all the help, you "honey".

It hardly seems a year has gone by since my last return, nevertheless, it was once again time to make my visit to the House.

It's the same ol story about a man named McTeir, he always gets in trouble after just one beer.

Eric never intends to get a bang or a slam, but he always ends up with Debbie, Shannon, or Pam.

Fred goes on dates which he can easily afford, the problem is getting the girl past his message board.

Stoney takes jokes real well they say, the question is will he Sybil today.

Dad was sidelined with a pulled groin muscle, for many a practice he didn't have the same old hustle.

Pieski was gone for a while from jolly old Rollins, but he's back in residence with a girl named Wallens.

Spanky has a penchent for being high on life, but is this weeks girl to be his wife.

Doe has a good time but it seems never with a broad, he does get his kicks as part of a demolition squad.

Bear obtains things and no one knows how, the question is who he has in the lower loft now.

It happened on his birthday in the middle of winter term, Stamby lost all his senses and ate the dreaded worm.

Scallops

Darrow

Testa

Rookie was in St. Louis for winter term so he wasn't around, He came back to Steve's late night friend on the rebound. Dapper is the perfect man for a Backgammon table, his problem is finding a girl willing and able.

Tony seems to find women he can take for a ride, living next to the door though there easy to hide.

Spider's smooth with the ladies always having something to say, the problem lies with girls he finds then needs help getting away.

Brad's been seen racking up points in pinball of late, briefly stepping out leaving his room and his Theta mate.

The man they call Russ; Pieman, Kaggage Belly, did not get that way by eating peanut butter and jelly

Kimby's had trouble this year getting girls to call, It's somewhat understandable with the softspoken broth shelly across the hall.

Rat's had an interesting year living in a poolhall its convenient though cause ther's someone there for his hourly call.

Watt's got a hideabed and a lot of room it does save, Not that he'll need it hanging out in Christie's cave.

Living next to Stony we know must be hard to take but that ain't the only reason for going home winter Creak.

As I reached the end of my tour, I saw the future faces to whom I could only day "If you ain't a Chi Psi, you ain't s.____!"

Despite all odds, the Dixie Boys have weathered another stormy battle on the snowy, southern banks of Lake Virginia for yet another RISE. McKean will never be the same without us and our 'mansion'.

Although small in number our senior class was a most distinguished group. Matt, on the 5 year plan, rarely FLOwed from his apartment. Harry was married but no one has seen her. Orbie played PATTYcake while Walt had the room but no one to fill it.

As for our juniors, Todd was a PAYNE except with the girls. Drew wheelbarrowed his FERS home while Jackson went out for MILLER time. Steve went waterskiing and jumped Debbie and his roomate Dave found a Texan with nice lipstick. Demario was too busy disecting to find a date. Chip and Dave, who?

Then comes our sophomores, such as Rieus, the hooded woodpecker who had no problem. Even hobbled to sweet Polly pure bread. Sam was hidden but always got his women. Hauskey played student while Brad Forgot hell. Wei-Wei got a job as a driving instructor for parked cars. Red Hoge was back but he didn't remember about grades. And Hilton got so mad sometimes he said he would SUE.

As for our members down under, Qued had a MARY time abroad. Eric was SCHOTT and Nancy came to his aid. Scott was into LEATHER And Peter couldn't find good looking girls anywhere. Wes took on the frat and wanted his money back and Minter played Yoga bear.

We would like to mention the pledges but as everyone knows you can't put guano on paper. Oh well dog eat dog.

P.S. Long live Daytona, tequila, boxers, volutaries, snowy weather, McKean Hall, old South, and of course Mad Dog

Dear President Reagan,

The Continuing TKE Saga . . . Our nation is still in one piece as yau begin your second year in office. Similarly, Rollins Hall is still standing united and strong. You must have misplaced the letter we sent you last year because we never received our welfare or foreign aid. Please consider this memo a re-application as we need it now mare than ever!

I'd like to take this opportunity ta acquaint you with some af the members who, while only mentioned briefly last year, play a key role in all fraternal activities. I'm referring ta the 1981 pledge class of which I'm praud ta be associated. Huxy apened his eyes far ten minutes, managed ta get a "100" fram Camille and paid homage ta the Grand Prytanis. Lori blew . . . dryed Mike's hair and made it stand straight up but that wasn't enough so she molested two of Santa's elves at the Christmas party. Y-Y's brother spent most of the year trying to gatar his man inta a manhale. Sultini (na-pini) has enough spirit far everybady and an imagination that plays tricks on him. Rumor has it Vave, our Memphis boy, had been embezzling money from the treasury for a spring break rendevaus in Colorado. Pothead #2 made national headlines — DARWIN ON TRIAL — Next time he'll be more rational! (Maybe Bruce could help). After Pavarotti's death, P.D.O. suffered severe mental anguish and taok to sleepwalking in scanty pajamas. Wilma is still working on the patia plans . John is busy delivering mail and hopes ta sameday replace Lucy in the Rollins post office. As for me, I'm ODDAR and I like wearing goldfish heels and dancing on tables tops. Mr. President, da yau think it's B.F.I.? I say it's G.F.I., so G.L.M.F.!

Neophyte Mickey has brought good ole days into the House forever and Evan, our Frater with the partial lobotamy is living in sin with R.V. (Thay, Thay, Thay)

We have quite an interesting class af juniors this year. Leading the pack is BuFu who can't wait until spring break when he's able to relax, drink g & t's, shed his clothing and play with his flute-a-phone and Julie McCay on the Love boat. T.J., our young I.F.C. President, wishes you would ake Eastern the presidential airline. Our Video man is working hard on a tan. He wants you ta know that he got an "A" winter term for photographing sensual vegtables. Our Venerable Hypoweezer blew off his sacred duties to tend to more serious business: Nautilus, picture taking, fishing, etc. . . . Cars had a few Parisian flies. The Australian King is back and continues to bitch, belch and dip. Our dorm damage co-chairman — Apache, wha enjoys eating Quiche Lorraine, and No Dong Diaz are in full swing again. Trinidad decided ta "bag dat Mahn" and sac-her! And now goodbye to aur seniors. The sperm whale spouted off at student court and hopes to someday be "beached" with his secretary. The King got into med-school and won't be a poor bay na ma! Dr. Gonzalez (P.H.D.) is ready to begin production of "The Little Wenches". People an the second floor will finally be able to sleep at night. Mr. Clean is leaving and taking his typewriter with him. Jewdan was last seen with Michelle at a private bagel brunch in the Bush. We'd like to thank Jay for the ice?!

As far as our advisors go, "Uncle Tom" drops in occassionally to teach us how to valet park and to offer words of wisdom. We also have a new addition to the fraternity, Dr. Eng-Wilmot. He says that things are looking up for us, but then again everything is up for a man af his stature.

A note about our Little Sisters — We Love Them . . . often! In addition, we've gat a very bizarre pledge class wham I'm sure you can't wait to meet. (We should Have!)

Mr. Reagan, PLEASE SEND AID!

YITB,

ODDAR, T.J. and the brothers af Zeta-Phi

P.S. We're the Best — Forget tne Rest!

X-Club

In the course of human events, there has seldom, if ever, been an organization with more spirit and a higher social aptitude than the X-Club. We are dedicated to the fine art of D (Donating to Friendly Beneficiaries) and in the pursuit of this and other equally honorable ends we aspire forever. In the hope that these traditions never wane, we present here a little memorabilia of Club Wahooness: Jimmy D — Pinehurst remembers; The untamed Pablo relives freshman year; What's the foundation of the Club made of? Rock; Dewey almost dies of Bengalmania; The Wildest of all Bills; Shtouter — the Crazy Costa Rican; Robbie — a fungus among us; Hawk turns his door into a wall; Mark St. Jean — Mountain Man; The Big Wave — you can be one of us!; Alden, give us the high sign; Jess — Guy — V.P. and Club Conn-man; Ike likes The Pigs and powder; Stern Ern — how 'bout a shuffle?; Zimmer — the closet KA; Kenny Harrigan loves Sea World; Tim Sedlak — Bad Head-Wack (again); Jumpin' Jive Bender; Hey Charles! What's The Hulk say? . . . rrrrgh!; Zang! What more can be said?; Eddie B. develops an underbite; Dave Patterson — Mr. Miserable; Woof; Bill Larson — more fungus; Girard, you like that short hair; Bernardo — still tearing up the water . . . and women?; Johnny Zero — X-Club Hero; Bill Perry — The Meister; Adam Ant — Howahya?; Dan Baby!; Bruce — many weekends of ABR (Always Busy with Raycliff); Shnargles, Hows life at the Condo?; Don Taylor likes his rocks.

Special thanks to: New Clubbers, Freshman women, Hot weather, binoculars, and last but of course not least — Club sports.

Special no thanks to: Security after 1:00 a.m., Pinehurst and Scott Ashby.

ORGANIZATIONS

1982 Tomokan Staff

Scott Roth, Dan Richards — Editor, Jerry Gladstein, Peter Lindemann, Tom Taylor, Debbie Packer, Nancy Roth and Grey Squires.

The job of Tomokan editor is not an easy one. This year was no exception. Yet, whenever times looked grim, our staff pulled through. I am very grateful for their dedication and talent.

I cannot mention everyone, but I must highlight the key people responsible for this book. Special thanks are owed to chief photographer, Scott Roth. Scott's invaluable photographic knowledge and talent give this book it's quality. I also want to thank assistant editor and business manager, Peter Lindemann. Pete took care of all the financial matters as well as providing moral support and the frequent encouragement to continue.

I also want to thank the following people, for without their contributions, the yearbook would not be what it is:

Jerry Gladstein (publishing advisor), Grey Squires (endless hours of dedicated work), Tom Taylor (knowledge of yearbook layout), Krista Silar (typing), Nancy Roth (artist), Bill Loving (fantastic pictures for the theatre section), Debbie Packer (marvelous energy for the faculty section), and Ober Tyus (advice and friendship).

The Tomokan is the product of a few special persons working to produce a permanent memory for the students and community of Rollins during 1981-82. We the staff present it to that community with pride and satisfaction, you are all welcome to share in it.

Dan Richards
Editor

From building a staff of 21 good photographers to all night print sessions at deadline — it was a year of development for the Tomokan Photo-staff.

It took a lot of trial and error, Heineken, and perserverence to pull it off, but we built without a doubt the best college photography staff!

To all those that worked and contributed,

Thank you,

Scott Roth

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Jeff Purvis, Cindy Hahamovitch, Cindy Harper, Jeff Giguere

Student Government this yeor seemed ot times to move ot o snails poce, whereos octuolly quite o bit was accomplished. The student senate voted in chonges that would reconstitute the way students were chosen to serve the government. Senators, under the new system, would come from the classes insteod of living units as they are currently. In oddition, changes were made to the student constitution which tightened up the document making it more ossesibile to student needs. It is hoped thot the next government will assure that the constitution becomes ovailoble to every student of the Associotion.

The officers, I feel did on excellent job. Both Cindy Hahamovitch and Jeff Purvis proved to be admirable in their elected positions. Although they, as I, found thot life in the SGA is certainly not all roses. As comptroller, Jeff Giguere, proved himself more thon competent ond current reports show thot the S.G. will remoin in the black this year which proves Jeff's dedicotion to the job.

For myself the job of president was full of lessons. I leave with no regrets ond wish future Student Government officers success. To the students I offer o chollenge to become involved. Rollins being a small institution offers you the opportunity to creote change, but you con only be heord if your comments are voiced aloud.

This yeor we creoted o new system next yeor ond the year after you can make it work . . . for you Good Luck.

Academic Consultation Team

The ACT provides peer counseling to support the faculty advising program. Through the examples set by ACT members students can gain insight as to what makes a successful, wellrounded student.

Chauncey Parker, Heidi Tauscher, Kurt Kleinschmidt, Kelly Oswald, John Kavanaugh, Kim Prine, Frankie Freeborn, Chris Mahone, Robert Allen, Marina Nice, Ray Fannon, Carolyn van Bergen, Nancy Roth, Nancy Kroft, Tim Steigla, Jane Duffy, Jordan Pritzger, Robin Yeull. Ed Campbell, Susan Murphy, Michelle Valley, Bruce Barber, Anna Abad, Dave Shasky, Andy Moss, Rafael Montalvo.

Australia

Each fall, Rollins students participate in overseas programs of study in Australia. These enjoyable opportunities for travel provide the chance for many students to broaden their education off of the Rollins campus.

Black Student Union

The Black Student Union attempts to establish a stepping stone through which the Black students of Rollins can express themselves while seeking to better the entire Rollins community.

Brushing

Serious writers and artists of the Rollins community compose the contents of Brushing, a Rollins literary magazine. It contains poems, critiques, essays, short stories, and art work.

Dan Richards, Aldebran Cox, Marina Nice, Dr. Carson, Pippa Boyd, Caro Walker, and Nancy Roth.

Chapel Ministry

This team gives spiritual guidance for all students. Their programs encourage moral and intellectual growth in the Rollins community.

Dr. Arnold Wettstein, Dean of the Chapel, Rev. John Langfitt, Marc Strauss, Rev. Bob Gibbs, and Father Joe Calderone.

Choir

CHAPEL CHOIR is open to all Rollins students and required for all music majors. The choir performs on all Sunday services and particpates in commencement and an overseas tour.

Circle K

The Rollins Circle K organization is a service oriented club formed to help the campus and community. Their activities include clean-up projects, guest speakers, and fund-raising activities. Circle K is a part of the Kiwanis Clubs.

Michele Krebs, Heidi Tauscher, Tony Delucia, Eric Lewis, Coci Rivera, Dawn Selover, John Langfitt, Alex Hurwitz, Nancy Roth Not in picture: Jennifer Walsh.

College Prep Week

During the week before fall classes begin, freshmen and transfer students have the opportunity to "make themselves at home" at Rollins. These students involved try to make new students feel at home in their new environment as well as enjoy their new home and school.

Jewish Student League

The Jewish Student League establishes unity among the Jewish students on campus and offers a variety of educational programs to the Rollins community.

Fine Arts House

This house is an alternative to the major dorms. They are located in Rex Beach and are dedicated to advancing creative thought at Rollins. It is open to any enthusiastic student wishing to develop their talents while helping others develop theirs.

Head Residents

The head residents of each dorm work to make sure that residence hall life meets the needs of the students. By serving as dorm co-ordinators, these students promote communication between their dorm and the rest of the campus.

Ireland

Each fall, Rollins students participate in overseas programs of study in Ireland. These enjoyable opportunities for travel provide the chance for many students to broaden their education away from the Rollins campus.
